Have you ever seen
A dime piece all alone at the bar, bar bar?
Straight out of a magazine
And you just want to let her know who you are, are are

So you say, let me buy you a drink
Or a little conversation
If that's what you want to do, do do
Then she said, love is about to end
Then you said, why don't you come to my crib?
Then she said, I can't leave my friends

["Chorus"]
Now you've officially been chopped and screwed
Screwed-screwed, chopped-chopped and screwed
You've officially been dance-dance screwed
And ewed-ewed, chopped screwed-screwed
You've officially been chopped and screwed

And-and screw, chop, screw-screwed
You've officially been screwed
Screwed, screw-screw
Chop-chop and screwed

And you feeling like it's about that time to cuddle up, up up
And you said, shawty what's really up?
And she takes big sip out yo cup

["Ludacris, Verse 3"]

Nah-nah-nah
Shawty why you acting all like that,
Like all you ever really want to do is just doubt me?
Ludacris can't-can't live with out 'em
But even more I bet you really can't live with out me
You-you must of flipped yo wig
You got to be out yo mind
I chop ch-chop you screw-you screw
You out-of-yo, out-of-yo spine

Back breaker, put you over my knee
Put you on punishment woman, and I'll spank ya
Have you praising the lord
Like thank you, thank you, thank you
Lord I want to thank you

But have you ever met a women that will lead you on
And steer you wrong instead of please ya?
Have you singing this song
Cause all night long she did nothing but
Flirt and tease ya

But I got to admit that I have Put one in the air sit back and I laugh
Shawty why do you insist on doing me that bad?
Probably cause of the amount of booty that I grabbed

Coming back to haunt me
So instead of being put into submission and subdued
Guess what dawg? ha ha ha, Lu-Lu-Luda
