

T'Pau, Now That You're Gone

Let me tell you the story of my life
About the fall from paradise that ended all my dreaming
And I tried and tried, but I could not put it right
So like a child on Christmas night, I just stopped believing

Now that you're gone, where do I run
Who do I give this love to
You, you threw it away
Everyday I have to live without you

Crowded room, I'm standing all alone
And though the faces come and go
Nobody seems to notice
A tearful tune is on the radio
Here to let me know
My heart is overloaded

Now that you're gone
Where do I run
Who do I give this love to
You, you threw it away
Everyday I have to live without you

If I seem ok, it's just a masquerade
The face I let you see hides the emptiness in me

Now that you're gone
Where do I run
Who do I give this love to
You, you threw it away
Everyday I have to live without you

Now that you're gone
Where do I run
Who do I give this love to
You, you threw it away
Everyday I have to live without you
