

Taken, Haven

Ridicule. shame. at the hand of others.
break this chain of endless persecution.
never feeling wanted. always left alone.
i look to you for approval.
but it always ends up.....
seeing myself as an individual helps me see the value of me...of life to love...to love
(this time is mine)
my heart is stronger than your weak words.
