

Talk Show, Hello Hello

She has the smile of perfect splendor
She'll let you think that you can win her
Broken beauty wearing superglue
She lies so good and she believes them too

Hello Hello

She's got a checkered reputation
Lives two lives in syncopation
Fractured fairy on the funny page
Southern belle she's on the northern stage

Hello Hello

She has it right
She lives two lives
Say the list is long
Call the missing song
Shit can even follow you underground
