

Tam Tam Go, Jonh Is Gona Break Your Heart

It's time to have a walk by the old stained road
I know you are gonna lie and after cry once more

Every tear you waste
Every word you say
Every thought you hate
For your pain

It's just a blow for a good time love
The you cry, when you love then you cry once more
When you beg me to I look in your eyes
And you beg me to I tell the truth

Then you really need to hear these words now,
Then you better go and find a house because...
John is gonna break your heart this morning

I know that John is...
Is going to push you away from home
It's time to have a talk about the things we know
Guess that you are gonna lie and after cry once more

Every tear you waste...
It's just a blow for a good time love, then you try one more
When you beg me to...
