Tara McLean, Higher

If I could spend my life in awe Of everything I ever saw You'd be the one to lift me up Higher than I am If the sky came crashing down You'd be the only star I found Of all those scattered on the ground I'd hold you in my hand Higher Higher Higher than I am So this is where I want to be From now until eternity A shepherd of the soul to me And I will be the lamb Higher Higher Higher than I am I see you sleeping now Invincible and golden There's nowhere else to go from here Higher Higher Higher than I am
