

Tarja, Tears In Rain

Dominos fall
In a house that's empty
Still of the silence
Is deafening
Not even a trace
Our existence erased
By this quiet game

I wish I could feel
But I can't remember
What was forever
Is never more
There's no monuments
Just the fading sense
Of what came before

We are gone
Nothing of us remains
Like tears in rain
Who we are
All of it washed away
Like tears in rain

A voice in my head
Now it must be madness
Haunting the halls
Everywhere I go
The pictures replaced
With a different face
One that I don't know

How could the memories be so real
We move on, but the time won't heal
So I give what I get
Just before I forget
How our fates we're sealed

We are gone
Nothing of us remains
Like tears in rain
Who we are
All of it washed away
Like tears in rain

Like tears in rain
We are gone
Nothing of us remains
Like tears in rain

I will write
Another storyline
The circle of love will shine
We'll share the daylight wishing for the nights

First time
When I met your eyes
Sublime
The last paradise
We've seen our Shangri-la
But for now

We are gone
Nothing of us remains

Like tears in rain
Who we are
All of it washed away
Like tears in rain

Like tears in rain
We are gone
Nothing of us remains
Like tears In rain
