

Tarja Turunen, The Reign

I see the waves of sand.
Big free another land.
Dreams within dreams you are alive.
They gave me their wings I spread them wide.

I'll move on to another place from my memories unmade.
I'll hold on and my heart will find you there,
love will shine free forever.

Sun flames and moons glow.
Timeless the tides will flow.
What will I face what will be mine:
fortune and fate the other side.

I'll move on to another place from my memories unmade.
I'll hold on and my heart will find you there,
love will shine free forever.
