

Taylor Swift, Run (and Ed Sheeran)

Give me the keys, I'll bring the car back around
We shouldn't be in this town
And my so-called friends, they don't know
I'd drive away before I let you go
So give me a reason and don't say no, no!

There's a chain 'round your throat, piece of paper where I wrote
"I'll wait for you"
There's a key on the chain, there's a picture in a frame
Take it with you

And run, like you'd run from the law
Darling, let's run
Run from it all
We can go where our eyes can take us
Go where no one else is, run
We'll run! /3x

So you laugh like a child
And i will sing like no one cares
No one to be
No one to tell
I could see this view a hundred Times
Pale blue sky reflected in your eyes
So give me a reason and don't say no, no
And the note from the locket
You keep it in your pocket
Since i gave it to you
There's a heart on your sleeve
I will take it when i leave
And hold it for you

And run, like you'd run from the law
Darling, let's run
Run from it all
We can go where our eyes can take us
Go where no one else is, run
We'll run! /3x
