Teena Marie, The Ball

Tender I remember, how you loved to turn me on Sweetly so completely, when you sang your sassy song Did you have a lighthouse, Yes, I'm sure indeed you did Where you used to take me, where the family jewels were hid

You said, "Can I, can I, may I, can I, take you to the ball" Take me to the ball You said, "Can I, can I, love you, can I, love you after all" Take me to the ball

The ball, the ball, sang your sassy song, sing it The ball, take me to the ball

There was sugar sweet as candy, there was sweetness on your lips And you sang it in a love song, and confection surely drips There was laughter and then after, when we could have danced all night We got into one another, and I know you know that's right

You said, "Can I, can I, may I, can I, take you to the ball" Take me to the ball You said, "Can I, can I, love you, can I, love you after all" Take me to the ball

I remember how we danced, when you were mine How we played " the suite" romance and all was fine How we always took the chance to be divine Love was always happening, love was happening at the, the ball...

The ball was fine-all the time-trying to blow my mind, baby Take me to the ball When we danced-to the beat-of a different drummer, baby Take me to the ball-play it

I remember how we danced, when you were mine How we played "the suite" romance and all was fine How we always took the chance to be divine Love was always happening, love was happening at the, the ball...

The ball was fine-all the time-trying to blow my mind, baby Take me to the ball When we danced-to the beat-of a different drummer, baby Take me to the ball-play it

You said, "Can I, can I, may I, can I, take you to the ball" Take me to the ball You said, "Can I, can I, love you, can I, love you after all" Take me to the ball

You said, "Can I, can I, may I, can I, take you to the ball" Take me to the ball You said, "Can I, can I, love you, can I, love you after all" Take me to the ball