

Teenage Fanclub, Hang On

Been bought and I've been sold and I've forgot what I've been told and now I need someone Of all the stars I've ever seen you're the sun

Hang on, hang on Hang on, hang on I've not forgotten all the tricks
that you've done
I just need some fun

I'm going underground to reassess just what I've found and all that I can do Been blinded by the light
now I can go with a smile

Hang on, hang on Hang on, hang on
that you've done
I just need someone
