

Tegan & Sara, One Month

One month to the day
That you said
That you'd never change
And if I am right
Then you were always wrong
You gotta handle
This while
An old man behind his walls
And all day long he's fielding calls
Said this whole world is gonna shut dow
Without me
Well, let's see
And show your hands to me
And show your hands to
Sinking into your queen
Sized kingdom
I'm begging you to stay, stay, stay
And sinking into your queen
Sized kingdom
I'm begging you to go, go, go
And take your pride
No room here for you
Anymore
Take your pride
No room here for you
Anymore
If you go
How do I know that
If you go
How do I know that
If you go
How do I know that
You'll be back again
'Cause in the end you always
Come for me

One month to the day
That you said
That you'd never change
And if I am right
Then you were always wrong
You gotta handle
This while
An old man behind his walls
And all day long he's fielding calls
Said this whole world is gonna shut dow
Without me
Well, let's see
And show your hands to
Sized kingdom
I'm begging you to stay, stay, stay
And sinking into your queen
Sized kingdom
I'm begging you to go, go, go
And take your pride
No room here for you
Anymore
Take your pride
No room here for you
Anymore
If you go
How do I know that

If you go
How do I know that
If you go
How do I know that
You'll be back again
'Cause in the end you always
Come for me
