

Temperance, I Am The Fire

You promised me to stay by my side instead I'm waiting without you
And I can't get away from your eyes in the pictures around me

Tell me why... Your reflection fills the mirror
Now it's time to redress all the wounds of my broken heart
There's a flame out in the dark
That is shining on my path
I will keep my eyes wide open
In the darkest night
Step by step I'll walk this road
Never looking back at all
So it goes, you know... Because of you!

I am the fire!
I am the fire!

If only I could give up the fight against the demon inside you
I'm really going out of my mind, I need to clean up my memories
Tell me, why did you leave me alone at the gates of Hell?
Now it's time to give voice to the pain of my broken heart
There's a flame out in the dark
That is shining on my path
I will keep my eyes wide open
In the darkest night
Step by step I'll walk this road
Never looking back at all
So it goes, you know... Because of you!
There's a flame out in the dark
That is shining on my path
I will keep my eyes wide open
In the darkest night
Step by step I'll walk this road
Never looking back at all
So it goes, you know... Because of you!

I am the fire!

(It's still burning higher and higher)

I am the fire

(Burning like the flame of desire...)
(I am the fire!) I am the fire!

(It's still burning higher and higher)
(I am the fire!) I am the fire!
(Burning like the flame of desire...)
(I am the fire!) I am the fire!
(It's still burning higher and higher)

I am the fire!
