

Terry Allen, Helena Montana

Hey he stumbled from
Some derelicts bar
Throw out his hands
An leaned on a car
An pretty soon this girl
Come up to him
Said "hey how bout some fun now, Slim"
Yeah he stuck his hand
In his pocket
An he pulled out a bill he said "I don't need no fun, little girl but I sure could use some pills" cause ... I been broke
An I been throw
I been bought
An I been sold
An Helena Montana
Beats hell-in-a-city ... gone cold
An Calgary's like Calvary to me
An Ft. Worth... it ain't worth a damn
An Cheyenne... hell, she ain't shy at all
But I'm damned sure gonna take my ride
Before I fall
yi yi yi whoppi ti e yi
yi yi yi whoppi ti e yi e oh
There's a Montana midnight
Under a moonlight ... tonight
An a Montana girl in the bed ... aaitin
For this tore down old body
That ain't at all ... all right
But she knows he'll be back Sooner or later
Cause I been broke
An I been throw
I been learned
Damned ... I should've knowed
That Helena Montana
Beats hell-in-a-city ... gone cold
yi yi yi whoppi ti e yi
yi yi yi whoppi ti e yi e oh
