

Testament, Night of the Witch

Lurking in the darkness they consecrate nightfall
A sacred rite destroys the light from purity withdrawn
Behold the face of terror
Open the gates of Hell
The season of the witch
Hell's cast its deadly spell

All night
They cast a spell by the light of the moon

Hiding in the shadows to penetrate your soul
Plant the seed of Blasphemy to tear apart your mind
Spread the wings of terror
May all the curses bind
They now control your wretched soul
A curse upon mankind

Behold the Devil's sign
Beware of witches in the sky
Who is ready to fly?
Unleash Hell

All night
They cast a spell by the light of the moon

Conjuring in darkness, desecrate their will
The dead of night has taken flight, assassinate them all
Show them the face of terror
Show them the grace of Hell
Black magic of the witch
Shall never break the spell

Conjuring with power
Mystical and formless

Behold the Devil's pride
Beware of witches in the sky
Who is ready to die?
You're hell-bound

All night
They cast a spell so the demons will rise

Chanting in the moonlight to dominate your will Coven flight, they ride the night, exterminate them all
Behold the face of terror
Unlock the gates of Hell
The circle of the witch
You'll never break the spell

Forever now spellbound
Unleash the deadly forces

Behold the Devil's sign
Beware of witches in the sky
Who is ready to fly?
Unleash Hell

All night
They cast a spell so the demons will rise

All night
