The 1975, Antichrist

[Verse 1]

And I swear there's a ghost on this island
And his hands, all covered in blood
And my wife inquired of understanding
But of course, my dear, you can't
She said, "How can I relate to somebody who doesn't speak?
I feel like I'm just treading water"

[Chorus] Is it the same for you?

Is it the same for you?

[Verse 2]

Well he comes and he goes, so capricious And his work appears so rushed Well I love the house that we live in And I love you all too much

[Chorus]

Is it the same for you? Is it the same for you? Is it the same for you? Is it the same for you?

Well the criminals and liars Keep them in your cells as a privilege of mine And I love the house that we live in And I love you all too much

[Bridge]

The blood is on your tongue as well as your hands The blood is on your tongue as well as your hands

[Break]

The blood is on your tongue as well as your hands Archaic and content you just wash them off The blood is on your tongue as well as your hands Archaic and content you just wash them off The blood is on your tongue as well as your hands Archaic and content you just wash them off The blood is on your tongue as well as your hands Archaic and content you just wash them off The blood is on your tongue as well as your hands Archaic and content you just wash them off The blood is on your tongue as well as your hands Archaic and content you just wash them off
