

The 69 Eyes, Babysitter

I have no laws but my own
I'm natural high, i have no soul
Out for kicks, in for trouble
So spaced-out that I'm seeing everything double

But I need somebody too
To take care of me
Would you be my guardian angel in my private Hell

You can't blame me for the way I am
I'll never grow up, never be a man
Too slow think, too fast to live
Love addiction too much junkie business

But I need somebody too
To take care of me
Would you be my guardian angel in my private Hell

I need a b-b-b-babysitter
I need a b-b-b-babysitter
I need a b-b-b-babysitter
I need you all night

And I need somebody too
To take care of me
Would you be my guardian angel in my private Hell
