

The Anniversary, Up In The Sky

released on The Anniversary/Superdrag split EP

Everybody's running from a cloud way up in the sky
A human disguise - saw it in their eyes
Everybody's shouting cause they never seen their daddy cry
An ugly surprise when the invincible dies

Ain't nobody gonna shake me off of my feet
Ain't nobody gonna shake me the way I shook myself
Brother's gonna shake that sugar tree down

Everybody's hoping that the poet's gonna give some love
With his iron glove - he's got nothing to see
Everybody's looking for the creature man to give them some peace
But he swallowed his teeth and wants the demons to pay

Ain't nobody gonna shake me off of my feet
Ain't nobody gonna shake me the way I shook myself
Brother's gonna shake that sugar tree down

Oh you gotta believe yeah you gotta believe
Oh you gotta believe

Everybody's running from a cloud way up in the sky
A human disguise - saw it in their eyes
Everybody's shouting cause they never seen their daddy cry
An ugly surprise when the invincible dies

Oh you gotta believe yeah you gotta believe x12
