

The Appleseed Cast, Max

These words failed
The smile that lit the room
In the corner by the lamp
But instead he saw
By pale yellow light
And the tv lit the floor
These words I could have said
To you
These words I could have said
Just watch
Stride
This race is run
Horses
Oh, my love
What was our song?
Of green grass
Trees
Fields
And red leaves crushed
Under footsteps and hands held
Birds in the blue sky
These words I could have said
