

The Automatic, By My Side

The things that run in my blood
I just gave up so fast I've got nothing left to give and Secrets don't keep themselves
I'm sick of hiding the answer from the question here
What did I find in my head?
Had no conviction and the fire, that had gone out
That little went, the radio signal went too

Is this the end of the world?
I can't tell
It's been like this so long
Is this still you by my side?
I can't decide
If you were here at all
Is this the end of the world?
Is this the end of the world?

Let's look back, I can't remember when
The last time anything I said meant anything
But things change, things change, things change
Just as I slipped into the gaps
Between resurgent thoughts
And I found myself wanting

Is this the end of the world?
I can't tell
It's been like this so long
Is this still you by my side?
I can't decide
If you were here at all
Is this the end of the world?
Is this the end of the world?

Don't look back and set traps
For myself to keep me on track
Don't backtrack, realise that
The best defence is attack

Is this the end of the world?
I can't tell
It's been like this so long
Is this still you by my side?
I can't decide
If you were here at all
Is this the end of the world?
Is this the end of the world?
