

The Awarians , Look!

A fear goes right through, through my bones
Am I alone?
Yes, I am alone

Chart my progress through the year
Things aquired and drunken beer
Experiences lived through, many still to come
Some radical changes make me numb

Look!
Look!
Look!
Look!

Where am I going and where have I been?
Am I living in peace or am I living in sin?
Today I feel a poison in my veins
It's source unfortunately remains unnamed
Sudden loneliness is what I claim
Is the pain in this game?
Am I on a backstreet?
Have I made a wrong turn?
My faith is strong, but I feel it burn

Look!
Look!
Look!
Look!

For this moment I've got the fear
That all I love could disappear
And go to a place which is unknown
Which would leave me in this world to roam
Stop right now and start again
Mental reset forever then
Go back to the beginning jump on the cart
Give the heart a new jump start!
