

The Badloves, Lost

i died at the hands of an angel gently betrayed with a kiss and all my dreams com tumbling down what i've found
well i was
lost
without you i was
lost
without a trace
never to be found

i cried and turned up the radio so no one would hear i was down so no one knew the trouble i had yeah i had it bad
well i was
without you i was
without a trace
you know that i was
lost
without you i was
loosing faith, i was
never to be found

under the wide open skies love disappears before my eyes down a road that leads nowhere there i stopped
looked around
we walk on common ground now everybody's
the way that i was
lost
without a trace
tell you i was
lost
without you i was
loosing faith
never to be found
no never to be found
sure that i was
forever to be
