

The Bastard Fairies, A Venomous Tale

Every thing I said was a lie
But you got to understand
I'm a human and I want you
Yes I need you, just to like me

You think that you've seen
All the bones in my closet
But you got to realize
I am always in disguise
Yes I need you and I want you
Just to like me

Wont you just understand
That the real me is too much for you
Honestly trust me
I will always deceive oh yeah

I know that it seems
That I'm always in your dreams
But its not really true its all just a coup because you want me and you need me
just to like you

You laid in my bed and what lingered in your head was a venomous tale of something off the scale
'Cause you want me, you need me
Just to like you

Wont you just understand
That the real me is too much for you
Honestly trust me
I will always deceive oh yeah

You're in love with a fantasy
You'll digress with great appease Your comfort zone is being invaded with a shadow thats belated

Wont you just understand
That the real me is too much for you
Honestly trust me
I will always deceive oh yeah
