

The Bates, Dinosaur

Well, I'm a little dinosaur
I'm a little dinosaur
I'm a little dinosaur
and I'm planning to go away

Well, I'm a little dinosaur
I'm a little dinosaur
I'm a little dinosaur
and I'm planning to go away

Now, I am real old, don't you know
Born ten million years ago
But they don't love me so I must go
Yeah
I'm planning to go away

Now the children upon their lawns
Will wake up and wonder where I've gone
And the flies that buzz around where I now be They're all gonna have to get along without me

They'll say:
Where's the little dinosaur
(I don't think, he had really gone)
Where's the little dinosaur
Where's that little dinosaur
He must have gone away
(I would look to come back)
Oh no, please don't go
(everybody like the little dinosaur)
Oh no, please don't go
don't go little dinosaur
Please don't go away

Hello yeah, I'll come back
You know I'm back to stay
'Cause I'm just your little dinosaur And I could never really go
NO
Never really go
(He's back!)
Never really go away
