The Beach Boys, The Girls On The Beach

Brian Wilson & Tony Asher (Irving Music) I had to prove that I could make it alone, but that's not me, I wanted to show how independent I'd grown, but that's not me, I'd try to be big in the eyes of the world But what matters to me is what I could be to just one girl I'm a little bit scared 'cause I haven't been home in a long time. You needed my love and I know that I left at the wrong time, My folks when I wrote them and told 'em what I was up to said that's not me, Went through all kinds of changes, took a look at myself and said that's not me, I miss my pad and the places I've known and every night as I lay there alone I once had a dream so I packed up and split for the city, I soon found out that my lonely life wasn't so pretty I'm glad I went Now I'm that much more sure that we're ready I once had a dream so I packed up and split for the city, I soon found out that my lonely life wasn't so pretty I once had a dream so I packed up and split for the city, I soon found out that my lonely life wasn't so pretty
