

The Bears, What's the Good of Knowing what's the good of knowing things you'd never miss what's the good of knowing one wayward kiss i cursed myself with knowledge and lost my innocence what's the good of knowing your deepest fear / the end is near now i spend my hours waiting for the past to reappear what's good of knowing truth from a lie / one more surprise i begged for her confession and learned of my demise what's the good of knowing the words they sang / the bells they rang what's the good of knowing forgotten dreams / one broken seam i thought i learned my lesson but i'm still in-between what's the good of knowing?
