

The Berlin Project, Aberdeen 3:06

Woke up today
I saw the rain come in
What could i do to shake this mess i'm in

Who could of told me
For i never wanted it this way
In a year of februarys
Where is my sunny day

What could i do, what could i say
If it all was gone
How could you take me another way
Or am i wrong
If i'm mistaking for taking the road less traveled
Please take me outside and say
"i think it's time to sleep on it
Don't make up your mind just yet
Wait till the morning comes"

What could i do, what could i say
If it all was gone
How could you take me another way
Or am i wrong
If i'm mistaking for taking the road less traveled
Please take me outside and say....

Who's there for you to turn to
For i really want you to know
Who's there to watch your back
At times when you feel alone
Who's there to watch you
Who's there by your side
Always and for ever waiting, waiting for you

What could i do, what could i say
If it all was gone
How could you take me another way
Or am i wrong
If i'm mistaking for taking the road less traveled
Please take me outside and say....