

The Black Keys, Flash Of Silver

My head is tired, yeah,
But my eyes still see,
When the fire hits your belly,
Do you ever think of me?
Door swung open,
And who did appear?
Oh, the warmth I was lovin',
And to my heart was dear, mmm,

She said "Don't retrace,
What's said and done,"
If her words hittin' her like bullets,
Tongue wouldn't be so numb,
Cannot be so weary,
And my mind run blank,
Just caught flash of silver,
In this cold and empty lake.
