

The Black Keys, I Cry Alone

My girl, my girl had a hold on me,
So tight, so tight that I could not see,
Girl, she had a hold on me,
She held so tight that I could not see,
My girl, my girl had a hold on me,

One day, one day I let her go,
It hurt, it hurt so, you'll never know,
One day, had to let her go,
Hurt so bad that you cannot know,
One day, one day I let her go,

At night, at night I cry alone,
I weep, I weep 'til the early morn',
At night, night I cry alone,
I weep all night 'til the early morn',
At night, at night I cry alone.
