The Black Keys, If You Ever Slip

If you ever slip, It gets lonely there, It's an easy trip, When the weather's fair, I will, Be here,

In the afternoon, I'm waiting for your call, In a darkened room, Just after evening fall, And I will, Be here, Be here, Be here,

What you used to have, oh, You don't have it now, no, Take another stab, Before you take a bow, And I will, Be here.
