

The Black Keys, Remember When (Side A)

It happened when I heard her name
Same old thoughts crept back again
Oh and grew, they grew

And somewhere in my...my sorry state
Lightning struck that old iron gate
It's true...yes, it's true

With snow in tow, the winter winds
Smacks you on your cheeks again
Oh, it stings, mmm, it stings

Mmm
Oh, oh
Ahh~ahh
