

The Browns, Red Sails In The Sunset

Mhmm red sails in the sunset way out on the sea
Oh carry my loved one home safely to me
He sailed at the dawning all day I've been blue
Red sails in the sunset I'm trusting in you
Swift wings you must borrow make straight for the shore
We marry tomorrow and he'll go sailing no more
Red sails in the sunset way out on the sea oh carry my loved one home safely to me
( guitar )
Swift wings you must borrow...
