The Cardigans, Seems Hard

Words/Music: Svensson

seems hard to understand I think no one can not anyone I know no, wait I think I know one who does at least that's what he says and what I mean is what I say but I've got thoughts left anyway seems hard to understand I'm not sure myself sure of what to think I know I should trust myself at least that's what he says seems hard to understand I think no one did not anyone I knew well, I thought I knew one who did it was only as he said...
