

The Cataracs, All You (ft. Waka Flocka Flame & Kaskadee)

I see you looking but you trying to act cool, right?
You don't even really care what I do right?
Prolly wanna pick, prolly want 2 right
Pretty girls get ugly and the mood right
Lil moon light go ahead and let it go
Well I don't mean to come across too sexual, oh, oh
But that ass is epic though
Titanic Saga, volcanic, hot lava, we burning up, I can serve it up
Like Luke I am your father
Only if you wanna, take a dip in each other waters
Take this bedroom and turn it into a sauna

She's sending me drinks, I fed her one back
She said hey boy, you're drinking too fast
And we can take it slow, you'll never be alone
She's telling me "All you tonight", lift me up

All you tonight, fill my cup
All you tonight, get me through, all you tonight
All you

If I want her, I'ma get her
Send the waitress over
Quit that bullshit girl, bend that ass over
Mr. Round of Applause, I can do it with no hands up
I go hard in the paint, she ain't even gotta change
Talk about yourself, bring a couple friends
I'm in japan, Tell yo friends I'm the man, ask your man
Drop it, Wipe me down, make that ass clap, clap
Make that ass clap, clap

She's sending me drinks, I fed her one back
She said hey boy, you're drinking too fast
And we can take it slow, you'll never be alone
She's telling me "All you tonight", lift me up

All you tonight, fill my cup
All you tonight, get me through, all you tonight
All you

All you tonight, lift me up
All you tonight, fill my cup
All you tonight, get me through, all you tonight
All you

If I want her, I'ma get her
Send the waitress over
Quit that bullshit girl, bend that ass over
Bend that ass over
Quit that bullshit girl, bend that ass over

All you tonight, lift me up
All you tonight, fill my cup
All you tonight, get me through, all you tonight
All you
