

The Chalets, Sexy Mistake

If you kiss me I will do nothing
You can do what you like to please me
I have a choice so I threw you away
You stood there are asked me to stay

What's a girl to do?
What's a girl to do?
I was mixed up so confused
What did I just say
What did she just say
I will regret this every day

I don't want to see because I
Wonder was it would have been like
I think you were cruel and vain but I want
You to kiss me when I want

What did I just say
What did she just say
I'm gonna practice every day

But oh guess what, I know your secret
And do you know if I will keep it
But oh I might
I think you know how you deserve this

If you kiss me I will feel nothing
You can do what you like to please me
I have a choice so I threw you away
You stood there are asked me to stay
