

The Cookies, Kill

someday I'm gonna kill you all
'cause I'm going insane living with y'all
someday I'm gonna kill you all
'cause I'm going insane
yeah

some day gonna kill you babe gonna leave your body on the street in the rain ain't no worries
no more drama
gonna live my life
gonna do what I want
running through the sun

some day gonna kill u miss I'll never get my money
so there is no regrets
gonna burn your house
like you burnt my cash
go die
with all that mess

some day gonna kill you bro gonna give you a poison 'cause you're like a rat gonna stop being lazy and driving me nuts get out of my face
breathe for the last time

some day gonna kill you sis for every day when you made me really pissed gonna take your clothes, shoes and bed you can go to hell and take your friends

someday I'm gonna kill you all
someday I'm gonna kill you all
'cause I'm goin insane
yeah

it's not like
I wish you bad
or something
you just
do the things
that make me mad often
then I can't stop
naively trying help
reduce my stress
by freaking visions
'cause I need
to keep common sense
and I've seen a lot
been in various places
I fly round the world
but
for sure
no one
can piss off
like mother, boyfriend
and tax rates

and I imagine too much

'cause
breathing out
and keeping calm
doesn't help
but in the real life
I'm a sweet daughter
damn I'll be the best wife

I take care of my friends
I will give them
everything I have
but
I just need
from time to time
in my head
for the good
of everybody
shoot them down
