

The Cranberries, Wake Me When It's Over

Trying to forget Something that you know It hasn't killed you yet But you cannot let it go I'm trying to exist
Trying not to scream
How it does persist Entrapped inside a dream

Fighting's not the answer
Fighting's not the cure
It's eating you like cancer
It's killing you for sure

so wake me when it's over wake me when it's over
wake me when it's over

living in the past it's difficult to hide some things will never last when you're swallowing your pride

Fighting's not the answer
Fighting's not the cure
It's eating you like cancer

wake me when it's over

watch the rain drop
watch the rain drop
watch the rain drop
watch the rain drop
