

The Cribs, I'm A Realist

I'm a realist
I'm a romantic
I'm an indecisive piece of shit
I'm a realist
I'm a romantic
I am indecisive and that's about it and you dream that's the same thing that's the same life you lead I don't agree and so you drink don't wanna think that's cos your mind is already made up
I'm a realist
I'm a romantic
I'm an indecisive piece of shit
I admit it
I'm up to my old tricks did you see her eyes (oh no I tried) she looked surprised
and you dream that's the same thing
that's the same life you lead
I don't agree and so you drink
don't wanna think
how you dream that's the same thing that's the same life you lead I don't agree and so you drink don't wanna think
no
I know that it's only a matter of time before you know it I'll be leaving town see it in my eyes no one will do
no one will ever do
I know that it's only a matter of time
seen it in your eyes
no one will ever do
no one will ever do for you
