The Cure, Apart

He waits for her to understand But she won't understand at all She waits all night for him to call But he won't call anymore He waits to hear her say Forgive But she just drops her pearl-black eyes And prays to hear him say I love you But he tells no more lies

He waits for her to sympathize But she won't sympathize at all She waits all night to feel his kiss But always wakes alone He waits to hear her say Forget But she just hangs her head in pain And prays to hear him say No more I'll never leave again

How did we get this far apart?
We used to be so close together
How did we get this far apart?
I thought this love would last forever

He waits for her to understand But she won't understand at all She waits all night for him to call But he won't call He waits to hear her say Forgive But she just drops her pearl black eyes And prays to hear him say I love you But he tells no more lies

How did we get this far apart?
We used to be so close together
How did we get this far apart?
I thought this love would last forever
