

The Cure, The Perfect Boy

You and me are the world
She said
Nothing else is real
The two of us is all there is
The rest is just a dream
Always meant to be
I can feel it
Like a destiny thing
Written in the stars
Inescapable fate
Yeah its out of my hands
Falling into your arms

And I dont want to get innocent
But I would love you to take my time
Were on the edge of a beautiful thing
She said
Come on
Lets stay here for a while

Oh girl!
He is the one for sure
Oh girl!
He is the perfect boy

Yeah me and you are a world
He said
But not the only one I need
The two of us is never all there is
That doesnt happen for real
If it was meant to be us
It was meant to be now
Dont see the sense in wasting time
If youre so sure about this
Laurel kismet hardy thing
You know tonight youre mine

And I dont want to get obvious
But I have to be gone by three
Were on the edge of a beautiful thing
He said
So come on jump with me

Oh girl!
Hes not the one for sure
Oh girl!
Hes not so wonderful
Oh girl!
Hes not the one for sure
Oh girl!
Hes not the perfect boy at all

You and me are the world
She says
The two of us is all there is

And her heart may be broken
A hundred times
But the hurt will never destroy
Her hope

The happy ever after girl

One day finds the perfect boy
