

The Dandy Warhols, Danzig With Myself (feat. Black Francis)

Some days it's just so obvious
Some days insidious
But half the people alive today are
Are fucking idiots
Surely it's the who brought about our end of days
But I've never been totally convinced that we deserve to be here anyways
Should anyone be alive then?
Should anyone wanna even try to survive it?
If we're lucky enough instead
To be more grateful
Than the dead are

I can't believe how many people want to deceive us
And I can't believe how many people want to receive it
I don't think that I have any answers
I don't think that I have any questions
And exactly what the truth is now is anyone's best guess then
Should anyone be alive then?
Should anyone want to even try to survive it?
If we're lucky enough instead
To be more grateful
Then the dead are grateful
Are grateful
Are grateful
