The Dandy Warhols, Everyone Is Totally Insane

Hear me out for I was joyful once, like everyone Hear me out I must have changed sometime And all at once 'cause it seems That nothing stays the same as certainly as me Yeah nothing stays the same but me

Well I have toiled I and I have tamed constricted and constrained Just to learn about how everyone is the same When I am old and I am lame act ruthlessly and strange Ask me then what I have gained from almost everyone

Uh ho

Hear me out for I had everything indeed Hear me out I must have changed

Well I have toiled I and I have tamed constricted and constrained Just to learn about how everyone is totally insane now When I am old and I am lame act ruthlessly and strange Ask me then what I have gained from almost everyone

Hear me out for I was joyful once, like everyone Hear me out I must have changed
