

The Dandy Warhols, Over It

All right, let's see if we can do this in one take - take
I find out too late when I,
I am over it
And each time, dearly escape when I'm (enough said)
Divine, fine
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I try to keep myself elated
And in my right mind, uh-huh, uh-huh
The one wrong song, telling me I've been here too long (enough said)
And I'm gone.
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I find out too late when I,
I am over it
And each time, dearly escape when I'm (enough said)
Divine, fine
I try to keep myself elated
And in my right mind, uh-huh, uh-huh
The one wrong song, telling me I've been here too long (enough said)
And I'm gone.
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
I am over it
