

The Dandy Warhols, Solid

Well I must have a door in the back of my head
Where I dump out all the crap so I can just feel solid again
No more sittin' around thinkin' about your hair
'Cause I must have a door in the back of my, back of my head
I got a beautiful new Asian girlfriend
She comes over and hangs around for days in my bed
You can't seriously believe I'm thinking about you man
'Cause I must have a door in the back of my, back of my head
Well it's a brand new day and I'm walking around old town
I feel cool as shit 'cause I got no thoughts keeping me down
I'm thinking blah de blah blah blah to your trip
'Cause I must have a door in the back of my, back of my head
Back of my head
Must have a door there
