

The Dandy Warhols, The Coffee And Tea Wrecks

The road baby is tight
And we roll baby you know tonight
There's a full pie in the sky
And it pulls baby you know to ride

It's fair because
I get higher than I think I was
We pull over when we're tired
We get wired

So pretty in white
And we roll out of your club tonight
You so out of sight
But your girlfriend hippie trance love to fly
