The Darkness, Holding My Own

Baby, everything has fallen into place My life is so exciting now I've got my space Like a splash of water on my face Lately I'm doing what I can to pleasure me I'm finding time to focus on my fantasies I'm satisfied in my own company

I don't need your permission To take this matter in my own two hands

'Cos i'm holding my own Give or take a tear or two I'm holding my own No matter what I put myself through

Lady, all we seem to do is talk about We take apart and analyse our ins and outs Honey, i would rather do without

No-one to answer to I won't spend another lifetime begging you

'Cos i'm holding my own Give or take a tear or two I'm holding my own No matter what I put myself through I'm holding my own

There's a spring in my stride There's a twinkle in my dying eyes

'Cos i'm holding my own Give or take a tear or two I'm holding my own No matter what I put myself through
