

The Dead Weather, Impossible Winner

I am the desert sun
The ever endless sea
Not a drop of blue or white
Is where it shouldn't be

I am a wheel going round
In a mirror house
A maze with no way out
What you have fears about

Holding on
To everything that's come and gone
I need distraction
Get me out from in between
Everything I've ever seen
Don't be long
I'm no beginner
I'll be here every night
My name up in lights
'The impossible winner'

I am the wilderness
Dark end of the street
Coast of infinity
Far as the eye can see

I am a white noise song
Thorn upon a thorn
A wind that whips around
No part of any storm

Holding on
To everything that's come and gone
I need distraction
Get me out from in between
Everything I've ever seen
Don't be long
I'm no beginner
I'll be here every night
My name up in lights
'The impossible winner'

Drag my body through the sand
Drag my body down the road
Drag me off to the end
Turn around, here I am
Drag me down, down low
Down, down some more
It makes no difference
Turn around, here I am
