

The Ferrymen, Ferryman

Walk by my side
Trust me tonight
I will show you paradise
No need to be scared
Never lose hope
Just step into my boat

Heaven
Just a little longer
A journey
That will make you stronger
I'll take you
To the other side

Crossing
A dark river
I promise
I will deliver
Your soul
To the other side

I'm the ferryman
And tonight I am your only friend

The wind is strong
The waves are high
It's time to leave the shore
If you can pay
I will save
What's left of your soul

Heaven
Just a little longer
A journey
That will make you stronger
I'll take you
To the other side

Crossing
A dark river
I promise
I will deliver
Your soul
To the other side

I'm the ferryman
And tonight I am your only friend
