

The Fold, Closer

Well it rained again today
I wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it right before my eyes
(Wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it)
But why talk about the wheather when we could very well be selling umbrellas
I've got my own opinions on how to treat a love like this

He should have held her closer, when it was all he had to do
When it was all he had to prove to all his closest friends
That she was a bright and beaming light, a beacon in the night
I rest on a vision of the shoreline glistening, and the two of us in love

When the sun went down tonight, I wouldn't have believed it if I hadn't seen it
Right in front of me, you painted the sky in a violet scene
And I sat there in my car, shedding the tears that I could never have let you see
Beneath that azure moonlit sky I felt you right there with me
I know you're right here with me

Snap back to it, fall in line and let it go, all you got is a memory

When it was all he had to prove to all of his closest friends
that she was a bright and beaming light, a beacon in the night
I rest on a vision of the shoreline glistening, and the two of us in love

When the sun goes down tonight, I'll set my eyes on the shoreline

I'm gonna hold you closer, as if it's all I have to do
As if it's all I have to prove to all of my closest friends
That she was a bright and beaming light, a beacon in the night
I rest on a vision of the two of us in love
