

The Fresh & Onlys, Presence of Mind

Presence of mind,
Should be easier to find
In moving shadows,
The absence of light
Men who seem to be bright
Are throwing shadows here
As a man, with stars in his eyes

What does he care if the future's bright?
The future is bright, the future is bright
After tonight, they run
Essence of life, should be easier to survive
It broken shadows,
The absence of light

Men who seem to be blind
Are throwing shadows here
As a man, with stars in his eyes
What does he care if the future's bright

The future is bright, the future is bright
After tonight, let it run
Presence of mind, presence of mind
Presence of mind, presence of mind.
